

Pellucid EyeStation

Treatment or surgery planning of all kinds of eye ailments & zero capital investment

- Platform to unify ophthalmic imaging, clinical data acquisition and clinical visualisation
- Central hub for managing and viewing complete ophthalmic clinical data
- Provides interactive overview of patient's diagnostic history
- Integrates with any ophthalmic vendor and device

Function

- To be used in assessment, treatment and surgery planning
- It is aimed to be used with zero capital investment

Features

Pellucid EyeStation is primarily aimed at being used in the assessment and treatment or surgery planning of all kinds of eye ailments with zero capital investment

Zero foot print ability

Compatible with any platform, any browser, requiring no installation

A/B scans

Provides a 360 degree, single view of perimetry, retinal imaging, A/B scans and IOP trends

OCT images

Provides 3D visualisation specific to OCT images

Clinical reporting

Integrated template based clinical reporting

Clinical display

Maintains the hanging protocol of pre-configured clinical display

Workflow

Patient registration

Enabled by Pellucid EyeStation

Capture retinal images

Enabled by Pellucid EyeStation

Transfer to cloud

Enabled by Pellucid EyeStation

Computer aided diagnostics

Enabled by Pellucid EyeStation

Report delivery

Enabled by Pellucid EyeStation

Reminder for drug consumption and follow-up

Enabled by Pellucid EyeStation

Why us?

- Automatically orchestrate all clinical information on a single intuitive screen
- Allows doctors to efficiently and reliably access, monitor, and identify changes over time
- Ability to integrate with existing IT infrastructure such as EMR, HIMS, and Practice Management Systems
- Addresses the absence of a vendor neutral integrated software to bring speed and efficiency in a practice

